

The Kay Yow Cancer Fund stands in solidarity with the Black Community today and everyday. To our cancer warriors, caregivers, coaches, players, officials, supporters and friends of color who have suffered unjustly for centuries in our country— we see you. We hear you. We stand with you. The vision cast for the Kay Yow Cancer Fund was, and always will be, to serve and unite. One of the many ways that people of color have experienced inequality in this country is through healthcare. The Kay Yow Cancer Fund is working diligently toward true health equity, where race is not a barrier to high-quality cancer prevention, treatment, and care. It's our commitment to be better and demand better, so that we can be a part of the solution to remove the stains of racism in and around us.
