About Coach Kay Yow

Coach Kay Yow was a Naismith Hall of Fame women's basketball coach at NC State University for 34 years. As a coach, she was a leader, but more than a leader, she was an inspiration. She was a woman who spent her life giving to others, so it is only fitting that she leaves behind a way that she still gives to others.

As a result of her own 22 year battle with cancer, Coach Yow founded the Kay Yow Cancer Fund to give hope to others who also found themselves in a similar battle.

Play4Kay is the largest fundraising initiative of the Kay Yow Cancer Fund. Your financial support of Play4Kay enables the Kay Yow Cancer Fund to continue to make an impact in the fight against ALL cancers affecting women.

About the Kay Yow Cancer Fund

The Kay Yow Cancer Fund is a 501 (c) (3) non-profit organization committed to being a part of finding an answer in the fight against ALL women's cancers through raising money for scientific research, assisting the underserved, and unifying people for a common cause.

To date, the Kay Yow Cancer Fund has awarded $7.78 million to research and programs that assist the underserved in ALL cancers affecting women.
